Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association

2012 Merit Scholarship Program

The Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA) is a professional association chartered in Washington D.C. as an educationally oriented, non-profit technical society. Its mission is (a) to promote industry-government cooperation in developing Communications, Electronics, Intelligence and Information Systems; (b) to contribute to the professional development of those in related scientific and technical fields; and (c) through these activities, to further the security and preparedness of the United States and its allies.

In support of this mission, the Atlanta Chapter of AFCEA will award a $3,000 scholarship to a full-time undergraduate student enrolled in an accredited degree-granting four-year college or university in the metro Atlanta or North Georgia area. Candidates must be enrolled at the time of application. This is a merit scholarship.

Eligibility: Candidates must be a U.S. citizen and working toward a bachelor's degree in: Science, Mathematics, Engineering, International Affairs, Public Policy or Information Technology; and must have a GPA of 2.8 on 4.0 scale or better. Candidates must be enrolled as an undergraduate in a metro-Atlanta or North Georgia area college or university.

To be considered for the scholarship the following must be provided:

- 1) Completed application (with essay)
- 2) Copy of college transcript (Fall 2011)
- 3) Letter of recommendation from a non-family member who is familiar with the applicant's character and career goals.
